This role encompasses team leadership, financial oversight, operational efficiency, and collaborative efforts with the Operations Director to enhance the overall success of the museum.

Essential Duties

- Supervise, coach, and support the Guest Service Team, fostering a collaborative team environment and ensuring the highest level of customer service.
 - Schedule the guest service team, volunteers, and cleaning contractors.
 - Inform the Guest Service Team of organizational updates, issues, and events.
 - Participate in guest service tasks, modeling a positive and welcoming demeanor.
 - Collaborate with the Operations Director to plan monthly staff meetings that provide the guest service team with the support and training needed to ensure a positive patron experience.
 - Provide frequent and meaningful performance feedback (both positive and constructive) to the Guest Service Team.
 - Conduct performance reviews during the initial employment period and annually.
 - Make recommendations to the Operations Director regarding staff advancement.
- Oversee the daily management of all public spaces (vestibules, lobby, exhibit spaces, program rooms, restrooms, sidewalks, and parking lot), ensuring they are safe, clean, and welcoming.
 - Inspect and monitor ("walk the floor") the galleries to ensure the conditions meet standards and visitors are properly served.
 - Maintain a list of extraordinary cleaning projects and maintenance tasks such as deep cleaning and "things to do when it is slow."
 - Manage inventory of gallery supplies, and time orders to ensure enough backstock.
- Implement operational procedures and protocols, including but not limited to guest safety, first aid, evacuation, and other emergency procedures.
- Ensure accurate accounting of earned income and guest service expenses.
 - Ensure all opening, transaction, and closing procedures are followed for all reservations and point-of-sale transactions.
 - Review, reconcile, and verify cash register drawers submitted by Guest Service Associates daily.
 - Ensure accurate accounting for all reservations and point-of-sale transactions in Altru.
 - Provide correct earned income allocations by date to the Business Director.
 - Manage the payroll budget for the Guest Service Team (schedule and submit approved time cards for payroll).
 - Manage the petty cash fund.

- Identify and lead in resolving issues of the museum’s guest services operations, including visitor complaints/concerns.
- Implement data collection for admissions and sales. Generate regular reports.
- Participate in weekly management meetings, providing key information and following up on action items.
